HISTORY OF BOLESŁAWIEC CERAMICS

The Bolesławiec ceramics has been manufactured for many centuries from natural ceramic clays that can be found near Bolesławiec at the Bóbr and Kwisia rivers.

The first ceramic dishes were made in mediaeval times.

QUALITY – IS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING

Yet in the mediaeval times Bolesławiec potters formed guilds that did the best to ensure high quality of their tableware.

FIRST SHAPES AND PATTERNS

In the first half of 18th century Boesławiec potters manufactured jugs and bottles with spherical bellies, smooth or diagonally grooved.

In the second half of 18th century and in 19th century jugs were coated with overlays of biblical or heraldic themes with floral and animal elements.

COMPANY WITH TRADITIONS

History of our factory started on 1889, when Mr. Hoffmann, established factory Thornröhren und Chamottenwaarenfabrik Hoffmann & Co., Bunzlau. Factory produced ceramics pipes, sanitary fittings and small ceramics items like ashtrays. Brand „Hoffmann & Co., Bunzlau” was presented on the market till May 1945 (untill the end of II World War).

After war borders has changed and Bolesławiec becomes Polish city and Poles started to continue production of ceramics. Zakłady Ceramiczne „BOLESŁAWIEC” Sp. z o.o. started production in 1946 and now we are the oldest manufacturer of ceramics in Bolesławiec region.

In view of complexity and difficulty level patterns are divided into 5 groups

CLASSIC PATTERNS

Classic patterns group is the first one. The patterns refer to typical, traditional Bolesławiec decorating in which the main motifs are peacock's eyes, dots, lines in brown, cobalt blue and green colours.

Dishes in pattern D-41

Dishes in D-1090 patterns

HIGHER STANDARD PATTEERNS

Patterns with higher standard are made by using mainly stamps in cobalt blue and colour blue combined with green. In vast majority stamps are in shape of peacock's eye.

Jugs and mugs in A-1158A patterns

SUBTLE DECORATIONS

In subtle patterns group floral and fruity motifs are added. The motifs have been developed for years. They are now very precise, downright lacy and join different shades of green.

ARTISTIC PATTERNS

Currently a whole range of colours is used in artistic decorations; from different shades of blue through greens, browns to oranges and reds.

Patterns contain floral or animal motifs all hand painted with brush.

Dishes in pattern ART-277

EXCELLENT ARTISTIC PATTERNS

Excellent artistic patterns are mostly floral ones painted with brush.

Openwork garlands are made by using a very precise stamp matching to a whole pattern.

Excellent artistic patterns contain a wide range of flowers starting from Polish poppies to pasque-flowers and the most popular roses.
